MIRAMAR CENTRAL SCHOOL VISION - Empowering our Ākonga/Learners

Our Ākonga/Learners

We will enable holistic child-centred learning through curiosity and inquiry to enable our tamariki to be actively involved in their learning.

2024

- Enhancing our gardening programmes and visual and performing arts to support hands-on learning across the curriculum
- Providing high quality Māori language education - Te Tuakiritanga (identity, language and culture matter for Māori and other ākonga/learners)

2025

- Continuously celebrating success
- Developing digital citizenship to create digital learners for the future

SUCCESS

Ākonga stand strong in their identity, language and culture, actively involved in successful learning.

Adorn the bird with feathers and it will fly/soar

He waka eke noa
Together we succeed

ĀKONGA

AKORANGA

HAPORI/TAIAO

Our Hapori/Community and Taiao/Environment

We will develop relationships with whānau/families, teachers, community, and our environment to create collaborative partnerships for learning.

2024

- Developing our environment alongside our community to instil pride and respect in our environment and enhance inclusive learning opportunities
- Providing culturally responsive teaching which responds to whānau aspirations and builds relationships within the wider learning community

2025

- Strengthening our sense of community by encouraging community members and groups to come into the school to work alongside us

SUCCESS

Whānau me te hapori are actively involved in the life of our kura through ongoing relationships that foster ākonga success.

Doipoia te kakano, kia puawai
Nurture the seed and it will grow

Our Akoranga/Teaching

We will promote a supportive and inclusive environment to support quality teaching and learning.

2024

- Striving to increase our capacity to develop and deliver a culturally responsive and locally relevant curriculum
- Increasing teacher capability to focus on ākonga-centred learning

2025

- Embedding Positive Behaviour for Learning (PB4L) strategies across all school contexts

SUCCESS

Akoranga (our teaching) combines expert teacher practice with high aspirations, based on mana-enhancing relationships, so that every ākonga achieves success.
